At Barnet.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Brown of Pencham visited relatives here Monday. Peter Gochee has sold the place where L. L. Baird now lives, to Mrs. Peter Shantee, who will take possession this week. Mrs. Baird expects to move into the Orrin Morrill house on Water

Bert Wilson expects to move to East Barnet soon, where he has a position with Roy Brothers.

Mrs. Walter Hazelton of Poughkeepsie, N.Y. is spending a few days with her cousin, Mrs. Charlotte Dow, of this Work is progressing rapidly on the store of Gilfillan & Chase, the roof already being nearly completed. This addition will be an improvement to the village and add greatly to the convenience of the store.

Mrs. Margaret Gilfillan and Mrs. Martha Hazelton attended the W. C. T. convention, at Groton, Thursday, as delegates from this place. Mrs. Nettie Kendall also went as a delegate from

The Memorial address was delivered at Peacham by Rev. Dr. C. O. Day. He gave a historic sketch of the war and commended all honors and victory as coming from God. A large attendance was present and the address was one that will long be remembered.

Mrs. L. McLam of Ryegate is a guest of her brother, John Davidson. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Goodale, who are visiting friends in Cabot, report a snow storm at that place on Tuesday, May 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Drew spent Sunday with friends in Haverbill, N. H. Until further notice the Christian Endeavor meetings will be held in the Endeavor rooms.

Little Ruth Gochee, who has been quite sick for the past two weeks, is much better and able to be out.

Parties from South Ryegate were in town this week to look over the granite quarries on Roy's mountain. They are contractors of no small ability and say that if the stone is of a quality that will warrant their doing so, they will give up their present contract and commence work very soon. If these men see fit to come it is hoped that they may receive the cooperation of the people in this place, as an industry of this kind means much to any town, especially to a small town like Barnet.

Charles Ufford was a guest of C. B. Whitney over Sunday. Mrs. Meroa Nelson has returned home after being away for several months with friends and relatives. Mrs. Sylvia Batchelder and Mrs. David Mackay of St. Johnsbury were guests of Mrs. Bell Morgan, Monday. Miss Mabel Goodale was a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Goodale, over Sunday. Quite a large delegation went from here to Peacham, to attend the Memorial services at that place, Monday there being among the number about 30 Foster Campbell, who went to Bright ook Hospital to be operated upon for appendicitis, has returned home.

and all report a very enjoyable time. J. S. T. Wallace, Mrs. K. M. Kinney, and Mrs. W. S. Brock, attended the Congregational County conference, held at St. Johnsbury, Tuesday. Arthur Robinson, has gone to Fairlee where he has a position as assistant in the Boston & Maine railroad station.

Harvey Daniels of Georgia called on his sister, Mrs. H. C. Holbrook, the first fthe week. From here he went to Morrisville to visit relatives.

Mr. Hunter, the assistant operator here, spent several days last week in Canada, visiting relatives. C. H. Gilfillan of Mystic, Conn., spent several days last week with his family Miss Bertha J. Stevens of St. Johns-ury was a guest at W. H. Johnson's Friday and Saturday. Jerry Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. Shepand of Woodsville were guests at the

Abbott homestead, Monday. W. S. Russell of East St Johnsbury was in town on business last week. Roy Potter and his sister, Mrs. Dan Fulford, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Potter.

Mrs. Chandler Whitney, who has been a poor health for some time, is a little

MONROE.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilchrist and child of Massachusetts are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Gilchrist. Miss Neva Root was a visitor in West Barnet, Sunday.

A. H. Bedell and family spent Sunday at McIndoes.

Mr. Hatch, a jeweler, has moved into F. Page's tenement. Mrs. Lurancy Rice has been entertaing Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Turner of Massachusetts. A large number from this place atended the address at McIndoes Memori-

Mrs. Luke Cross is at home from West

Mr. and Mrs. Ardie Shaw of Barnet visited relatives in town Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Hosford spent last week with her daughter at Woodsville. Mrs. colby and two children returned with der for a few days visit.

Mrs. Rosa Hunt has been entertaining Ir. and Mrs. Fred Drew of North Haverhill

Robert Duncan is home from Portland, or a short vacation.

Mr, and Mrs. Howard Emery were at Newport, Saturday.

Mrs. Cora Noyes of Henniker visited lev. and Mrs. Dick Burns recently. Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Page spent Saturlay at Ryegate. Mrs. Herman Jordan, who has been uite sick, is gaining. Miss Annie Colby s helping her.

RYEGATE.

Patriotic exercises of a high order were onducted by Miss Taplin, teacher of the fillage school, Friday. The school room was tastefully decorated with native The drama given by the Academy bury visited her sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith, students at the hall Friday evening was last week.

during his stay at the Soldiers' Home at a decided success. The parts were well occasion.

The school boys and girls from St. J. A. and Dartmouth enjoyed their brief vacation from Friday until Tuesday morning. J. A. McLam has gone to St. Johnsbury as a juror during this session of court. Mrs. William Thompson, with Masters Raymond and Willie, visited over Sunday with relatives at Littleton.

Mrs. W. T. McLam went to Northampton last week to spend a few days with her daughter Grace, a student at Smith College.

Rev. J. A. McKirahan, who has been absent for several weeks attending the higher courts of the United Presbyterian church, the committee of missions and the general assembly, writes that he is growing stronger and expects to be able to resume services, Sunday, June 13. He Miss Olive McLam spent a few days at home the last of the week. She returned to St. Johnsbury, Saturday, to take up her duties as caretaker of her sister, Mrs. Leach.

Leslie McLam has completed his year's work at Goddard and returned home the first of the week. He expects to work for Wesson Sargent during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Symes go this week to Utica, N Y., to visit their son Wilbur, who graduates from Cornell. Mrs. Merrill of New York is visiting her sister, Mrs. Samantha Whitehill. Mrs. Merrill expects to remain during the summer. Her son, H. Merrill, artist for the Century magazine, will go abroad during the summer. Mrs. J. A. McKirahan went to Wells River, Tuesday, to meet Mrs. I. N. Stewart and party, who are on their way to the White Mountains to remain through the outing season.

EAST BARNET.

Several from here attended the W. C. T. U. county convention at Groton last week.

Mrs. Robert Kendall from McIndoe spent Thursday with Mrs. C. Dickinson. Rev. C. O. Day preached a fine sermon to a full house last Sunday. This is his last sermon here, and the people regret very much to have him leave.

James R. Galbraith was chosen delegate to the conference of Congregational Churches to be held at St. Johnsbury this week.

Rev. C. H. Merrill from St. Johnsbury will preach here next Sunday.

The L. C. S. will have a strawberry festival and promenade Friday evening June 11. There will also be an apron sale, and reading by Miss Christine Hall from Barnet.

Mr. and Mrs. Aleck Blair are rejoicing over the arrival of a son in their family last week.

McINDOE FALLS.

Death of Mrs. Bishop. Mrs. James I. Bishop died very suddenly of neuritis of the heart, Thursday evening, May 27. She had been a great The school children accompanied by sufferer from neuritis for the past four their teachers, walked to the top of East Barnet mountain, Monday afternoon, day of her death, and was about the per was served in the vestry of the ator Wells, Postmaster Lange, Mrs. L. C. ber of 48 Tuesday afternoon to renew house until an hour before the end came. Amanda Sophia Soper was the daughter of George and Abigail Crane Soper and was born at Danville, November 18, 1838. Most of her childhood was spent at St. Johnsbury and on Jan. 22, 1857, she married James Ide Bishop of that place, and they passed the 52nd anniversary of their marriage in January of this year. The first 25 years of their married life were spent at St. Johnsbury, then they lived at Montclair, N. J., for five years; returning to St. Johnsbury they lived there a short time, and ther moved to McIndoe Falls, which has since been their home. Mrs. Bishop leaves beside her husband, four sisters, Mrs. Annette Woods of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. John Bishop of McIndoe Falls, Mrs. C. G. Stebbins of Woodsville, and Mrs. F. E. Richardson, Waterford. One sister, Mrs. Sarah Allison, died at Danville, April 11. Mrs. Bishop was a devoted wife, and very fond of her home. Having no childred of her own her home was always a very happy placefor her sisters and their children to gather. She was a member of the Congregational church and the Ladies' Aid society, and was an earnest christian woman. She was ever ready to do good, and to know her was to love her. During her long years of constant pain everything possible was done to alleviate her suffering, and her sister, Mrs. John Bishop, was untiring in her devotion to her. The funeral was held at the home, Saturday morning, her pastor, Rev. H. T. Barnard, officiating. A mixed quartette sang, and the bearers were her nephews. She was laid to rest in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, St. Johnsbury. Those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mrs. Annette Woods, George D. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gadapee, and Byron Bishop of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Stebbins of Woodsville, Mrs. F. E. Richardson of Waterford, Mrs. S. N. Ingalls and Mrs. strength. Her home was a notably at-Robert Vance of Danville, Mr. and Alonzo Ingalls of Lyndon.

> Arthur Montgomery of East Hard-wick was a guest of his brother, C. C. Montgomery, over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peck and little > well were guests at A. L. Guthrie's several days recently. Miss Martha Colby spent last week in Woodsville with her brother, John > Colby. Miss Ella George and Miss Ida Bell Larrow of Wells' River were guests of Miss Bertha Bedell, Friday and Satur-

> Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Winch and Miss Flora Winch spent Thursday in Corinth with Mr. Winch's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kimball and children, and Mrs. Alice Field and son Girvelle of Woodsville, were guests of Mrs. William Kimball, Sunday and Monday. Pre-Memorial exercises were held at the schoolhouse Friday afternoon. Rev. H. T. Barnard gave a short talk to the children after the exercises.

Dudley Chase of Woodsville was a guest of his brother, Charles Chase, over Sunday.

Hampton, Va. Many of the parents assigned, each doing justice to their and friends showed their appreciation of the event by their attendance on this music. The proceeds amounted to about

Mrs. Priscilla Bedell of Monroe has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Merrill Bedell, the past week.

Miss Beth Renfrew of Newbury was a guest of Miss Florence Gibson part of last week.

Hon. Perley Smith of Lawrence, Mass., gave a fine Memorial address Monday afternoon.

SOUTH RYEGATE.

Mrs. Jacob Mills of Helena, Montana, arrived in town Thursday and will spend a month with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Mills, before attending commencement at Wellesley College, where her daughter Edith is a graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Harriman have returned from Cedarville, Ohio, where Mr. Harriman has been attending had a severe attack of grip, which left him very much broken in health. to return to Cedarville in the fall.

John Ralston returned Saturday, having spent the last two weeks in Canada, and he and his wife left for Cabot the same day.

M. F. Sargent is making extensive repairs on the house recently occupied by lames Gibson. When the repairs are completed the house is to be rented by ames Gibson and Ralph Whitehill. lames Gibson has moved his family for the present into the house vacated by John Ralston.

I. O. Moulton moved his household goods from the brick block, Monday, having rented a farm in Topsham. W. O. McAllister and son Wilbur of few days' fishing. Mrs. T, W, Smith has returned from spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Rollins, at Roslindale, Mass.,

and is spending a few weeks on the farm. Mrs. Charles Smith went to Manchester, N. H., Saturday, to visit her people.

William Stephens moved his family last week into his new home, purchased of Robert Plummer. There will be a cottage prayer meeting tonight at the home of Jack McIver on Jefferson Hill. Roy Darling spent Sunday and Monday in Barre.

F. J. Tewksbury is the possessor of a fine new Reo automobile F. J. Tewksbury and H. G. Randall are in Ryegate this week at work on a carpenter job for George Gebbie.

PASSUMPSIC. Miss Florence Judkins of Hanover visited friends here last week. Mrs. William Williams of Barton vis ited Mrs. C. R. King, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shepherd of Woodsville spent Sunday at Mrs. Shep-

Mrs. Florence Wishart, who has been staying at B. S. Dow's, is taking care of Mrs. J. D. Gould. Mrs. Guy Somers and Mrs. Orville Pinney are on the sick list, church.

Miss E. Vaun Annis has completed her work for A. C. Cyr and Miss Louise Aver is taking her place. Mrs. A. I. Symes has returned from Boston, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Fisk. A reception was given to Mrs. Bessie Hunt Wells and Percy Wells Friday night at their home. He was remembered with an envelope of money. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. E. P. Little and daughter Mabel spent Saturday here. Mrs. Ida Thyng had an accident last week while returning from St. Johnsbury with one of Mrs. Cora Annis' teams. The horse either stumbled or stepped on a stone and fell, breaking the shaft. Mrs. Thyng got out to go to the horse's head and he took a hasty start for home. Fortunately Mrs. Thyng was

Will Somers is at home from Cambridge, Mass.

Harvey Somers is very sick. Mrs. Emma Webb of Newport is in town on a visit.

EAST CONCORD.

Death of Mrs. Wallace.

The sudden death of Mrs. Mary Kingman, wife of J. D. Wallace, occurred at her home Thursday, and came as a great shock to the entire community. She was 65 years of age, and has been a litelong resident of this community, with the exception of the first seven years, which were spent in Manchester, where she was born. She had long been in feeble health, though never complaining, but her last sickness was of short duration. She was possessed of excellent judgment, and a cheerful and obliging disposition. She greatly loved her home, and her energy and industry went far beyond her tractive one, as many guests can testify. She is survived by her husband, three children, Mrs. F. A. Hutchinson of Kirby, Hiram J. Wallace of Malden, Mass., and William E. Wallace of Hanover; also three grandchildren, Ellen and Edith, daughters of Mrs. Hutchinson, daughter of Hanover, and Floyd Hart- two daughters of William Wallace, four brothers and four sisters. The funeral was held at her home, Saturday, Rev. E. G. French of Lyndonville, officiating. There were many beautiful floral offerings. Interment was at East St. Johns-

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Adair took a carriage drive to Littleton last week. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carr, Harry Carr and Georgie Craig of St. Johnsbury were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Grant and mother, Mrs. Eliza Grant, of Lyndon spent Sunday and Monday with friends here. Andrew Folsom of St. Johnsbury was here last week Tuesday. Mrs. Calvin Breakwood of Littleton was here last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Higgins of St. Johnsbury were recent guests of friends here. Mrs. George R. Crosby of St. Johns. fix it up for a meat market.

The East Concord base ball team played the Concord team Monday at that place, defeating them 10 to 6.

Card of Thanks. We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our loved one, also for the many beautiful flowers.

I. B. WALLACE, MR. AND MRS. FREEMAN HUTCHINSON MR. AND MRS. H. J. WALLACE, MR, AND MRS. W. E. WALLACE

WEST DANVILLE.

The great Cash Sale at B. U. Wells store, will be continued until June 15. The same prices lately advertised in the newspapers and posters will prevail and many additional bargains will be offered Strictly fresh eggs 24c doz. in exchange for goods.

EAST BURKE. Mrs. Hart's uncle and his daughter. who have been visiting her have returned to their home in Colorado.

R. A. Eggleston spent Saturday and Sunday in their cottage at Willoughby: Miss Roe Parker and her sister with Helen Carpenter of Lyndards visited Mrs. Counter last week.

George Latham of Woodstock, N. II. was in town last week. Everett Cole and Miss Esther Archa-bald of Lancaster, N. H., are visiting his ing-Mr. and Mrs S. L. Thurber have returned from their visit to Coventry. Dr. Roland Harvey, wife and daughter

C. P. Houston of the B. & M. Railroad W. O. McAllister and son Wilbur of Manchester, N. H., came Saturday for a his mother, Mrs. Emma Houston. They were the guests of Mrs. Jeff Welch.

> Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Webster are visiting in Boston and vicioty. Mrs. Jesse Legacy has been visiting her > daughter at St. Johnsbury. Willie Stafford and son were in town over Sunday.

> Mr. and Mrs. V. L. James are visiting relatives in Monroe. Mrs. Ralph Parker of St. Johnsbury is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Godding. Mr. Godding is seriously ill W. H. Jeffrey delivered the Memorial

CABOT.

Memorial Doy.

address at Woodbury, Monday.

Pre-Memorial services were held at the Congregational church, May 24, with a large attendance. Morrill Post was in attendance, but showed that time was fast thinning its numbers, although they show commendable interest take an automobile irip through the in sustaining a Post. The Woman's Re- mountains and then to Boston. They hef Corps was largely represented, but there was a small representation of the Sons of Veterans The sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Sparlawk and was a most enthusiastic, patriotic discourse. Saturday, the 29th, was observed as Memorial day, and the gathering was large. The soldiers' graves were decorated in the foremoon and in the afternoon exercises were held at the town hall, where a most stirring patriotic address was delivered by E. A. Nutt of Montpelier. The speaker was at his best and About 100 attended the Grange meet- was attentively listened to and loudly ing last week Tuesday night, there being applauded at the close. Music was ren-Lance, and Mrs. James Drew The soldiers sang "The little bronze button you wear on your coat", which brought down the house. Mrs. Myrtie Myers Converse, daughter of Commander Myers, sent from St. Louis, Mo., red, white and blue boquets for each soldier.

Appropriate exercises were held Friday by the schools. Mr. and Mrs. Witham and Miss Gertrude have returned from West Milan, Mrs. Mary Atkins has had a new monnment erected upon their lot.

Union Memorial services were held at the Congregational church Sunday evening. The great Cash Sale at H. U. Wells' store West Danville, will be continued until June 15. The same prices lately advertised in the newspapers and posters will prevail and many additional bar-gains will be offered. Strictly fresh eggs

24c doz. in exchange for goods. EAST ST. JOHNSBURY.

The many friends of Milo F. Young of Lincoln, Neb., will be interested to learn that he celebrates on June 15 his eightythird birthday and it is proposed to give him a birthday shower of postal cards on that occasion. All his old friends and the descendants of his friends are urged to write him on this occasion, mailing their cards to his address at 1848 C street, Lincoln, Neb. Mr. Young was born in Waterford in 1826 on the old Benjamin Young farm, now occupied by and thoroughly conversant with the affairs of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harvey spent Sunday with their father, Ira Harvey, and sister, Mrs. J. D. Winslow. Miss Edith Rudd of Nashua, N. H. was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Rudd over Sunday. Oscar Wallace has rented his house to

M. Dea of Kirby. The pre-Memorial exercises by the pupils of the village school were excellent, them

E. L. Dodge of Boston was home Sunday and Monday. Mrs. M. C. Dodge of Concord is spending a few days at the home of her son,

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER.

G. W. Dodge.

E. H. Hallett is a very busy man these railroad line. He sends about 50 dozen

Miss Louvia Bean of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday at Mr. Jenness'. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blodgett of St Johnsbury spent Memorial day with her sister, Mrs. D. W. Jenness. Walter Wheeler and Bert Gregory have purchased the Johnson place and are making repairs on it. They intend to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenness visited in Sutton the first of the week.

Frank Wheeler has bought the and below Fred Bennett's and is building a house there. The foundation is already being laid

Mrs. Saucier, who has been viciting her daughter, Mrs. Mongrom, retourn this week to her home at Eagle Lake.

Mrs. Rebeyes Harriman has gone in St. Johnsbury to care for a national Miss Mary Coveney of St. Johnstours pent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Secretar

Morrill's. A. B. Pringle, Mrs. E II. Strong and H. J. Kelley were chosen delayates to the Caledonia county conference of Congregational churches to be held "neaday and Wednesday at the North shorth

Very interesting memorial mercians were given by the pupils of the selection On Saturday the scholary marched to the crustery, where he usual exercises were held. The bit, Johnson bury Center Band farnished music which was appreciated by all. The many friends of Mys. H. J. Kelley, ill be glud to bear that she a getting along unele, Mrs Dwight Simpson, who is at the Carney Hospital in Boston, is also getting along well, If the weather is favorable the Sa. obnsbury Center Bund expect to give who went to Englished Hospital last

Mrs. Lucy Jackson has noved from the Stevens block into L. D. Stiller tonement.

heir first band concert Thursday even-

Miss Lillian Parrar, who is working of East Hardwick are visiting relatives at Mrs. Benedict's spent Monday at her some at Newport. Mr. Ducett, who has been living at

New Market, Mass, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Languer. He goes this week to Canada. E. J. Humphrey and son Philip of Somerville, Mass, cailed on old friends here lust week. The ladies of the Methodist church meet with Mrs. Forsythe, roday, to tie a the Methodist church will mees with Mrs. Granger, Thursday. Miss Bessie Wheeler spone the insthe week with relatives at Lyndonville. Mr. and Mrs. Dennie Trombley and hildren spent Sunday with Ar and

The Woman's Missionery society of Little Charlie Brook fell from Mr. Bell's coal shed while playing catching his hand on a nail, which cut a deep gash in his little finger. Mr. and Mrs. Ohn Sargent Mr. and Freeman Pierce of St. Johnsbury are to intend to be gone about three weeks. Mrs. Susic Berry of Barton visited at

Mrs. George Morrill and Mr. and Mrs.

C. I Herry's last week Mr. and Mrs George Dow and Mrs. Mary Robbins of Glover are spending a Annual Regimental Reunion.

The 15th Vermort Regiment, of which the late Redfield Proctor was the honored colonel, selected this year their ed. Mony valuable frees are rained colonel's birthday on which to hold their by tying horses to them with no prober of 48 Tuesday afternoon to renew their acquaintance with each other and to greet Ex-Gov. F. D. Proctor, on this then 17th annual reunion.

The meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock, following the registration of members. The colonel of the association, Ex-Gov. C. J. Bell presided in an exceedingly happy marner and called on several members to make brief remarks. Among those who spoke interestingly were Judge J. T. Gleason of Lyndonville D. P. Celley of St. Johnsbury, J. H. Wilson of East Haven, R. G. Brock of Wells River, J. S. T. Wallace of Barnet, and I. L. Hovey of St. Johnsbary. All paid tender tribute to their late war colonel Ex-Gov. Bell presented Ex-Gov. Proctor. who spoke of the great love his father always held for the regiment and every one of its members, and of the happiness given him by the meeting held with him a few years ago. He also spoke of the necessity of continued loyalty and patriotism by the younger generations. that the late ebellion may not be forgotton, and that other wars may be pre-He presented a picture of his late father to the 15th Vermont Regiment, to replace the one destroyed by fire a short time ago in the G. A. R. rooms, and Gov Bell spoke appreciatively of the gift, which he said made this a pleasant, sail.

yet very delightful day. A rising vote of thanks was given. A very tempting dinner was served by the ladies of the Relief Corps and among the guests were many visiting ladies.

The afternoon program included remarks from a few of the veterans, recitations by Misses Marguerite Robinson of Lyndonville and Florence Celley of St. ohnsbury, and the reading of letters Sylvanus Owens and he is in good health from absent members. These officers were elected

The following members of the regiment

Colonel, J. T. Gleason

Lieut, Col., R. G. Brock, Adjutant, D. P. Celley,

Major, F. E. Cobleigh.

were present: J. T Gleason, Lyndonville: H. A. Joslin, Concord; J. H. Winslow, East Haven; Edward Grannis, Lancas ter; W. C. Pratt, Concord; S. M. Parrer South Penchan; A. M. Whitelaw, Rye gate; S. E. Dutton, Lyndonville; M. J Robinson, Lyndonville, Lewis W. Gorand a goodly number were there to enjoy don, Lyndonville, H. W. Damon, St. ohnsoury Center; A. W. Bean, Lyndon Center; G orga Shorey, Lyndonville; C Bell, Walden; Willis L. Guild, Lyndon ville, A. C. Farmer, East Burke; B. F. Woodbury, Concord; Freeman Hyde, Sutton; Alphonso C. Pillsbury, Wheelock; W. H. Haviland, Barre; F. E. Cobleigh, Lyadonville; C. G. Mooney, Lyndonville; A. W. Farmington.South Walden; John H. Stevenson, Barnet: A. J. Miller, Lunendays, shipping plants up and down the bury; Millen Farrow, South Peacham; William Marshall, Burke; W. C. Meserve per day, besides attending to his estail trade. He will have about eight acres of strawberries under cultivation this year.

Lyndon; C. L. Stacy, Concord; N. H. Page, St. Johnsbury Center; D. R. Cobb, West Clover; I. K. Gray, Wheelock; R. A. Gray, Shaffield; E. H. Ranney, Conford; Andrew Aitken, Wells River; T. Wallace, Barnet; J. B. Stuart, West Barnet; R G. Brock, Wells River; R. N Bailey, Pencham; R. C. Ward, E. E. Carr, D. P. Celley. Francis W. Cheever, H. G. Ely, W. H. H. Rollins, James D. White, E. L. Hovey and S. W. Hall of St.

FOLEYSHONEYANDTAR

Johnsbury.

THE GRANGE

I. W. DARROW, Chatham, N. T., Print Development New York State

A Pusic Work of Much Importance to the Community.

How tim Grange May Assist In the Improvement of Our Villages-Some Valua Ne Supportions - Shade Trees. and Their Protection.

The admirantip to tween those 22: ing is his country and those reading The grange larring as one of its objusts the improvement of social readiparticularly where the grange mosttigs are field, as many see, in ellinge vintors. The invrinces of the vivingeserviced is dependent very sargely ogon the tarmers and if they emp mingiv sequenched springly and know more of each other they will both be bene-other weedons of the groupe may be hold at intervals, to which the village people can be includ; at which time or members of the grange may conterisate a paper or address ou a topic towning form life that will be instructive out entertaining. The eduntages of farm tife out; he set forthfa a manner that will not full to interand those to other lines of work.

685 file other hand, some villings rearesentances many he asked to contribe We at matrices or paper on the advanluges of village fife. Prines could be offered for these and judges appointed to determine the arguments, when reaches the catarrh in whotever organ some veg; foregoving discussion could Le had that would be suggestive and

The grazer may give valuable suggestions on how to make a rillage most stresctive and comfortable. Plans may be made sted for the planting of shade trees and for their care and protection the kinds of picnes and distunce at which he plant them. Most villages pittle frees too close together and those that spread out too much in then growth, which spoils the lawns and keep the reads moddy. Valuable information may be given on how to printe study tries and control the insects that have them. Accommodations for the tring of horses in the sheds are needed and may be suggesttection provided, yet there is no other Way to do in county instances. Every victors aboutd provide water trongie or fountains for horses. Many would be r great accommodation; where furmers sould drive under cover and seave theat feams in a comfortable place, les which accommodation a maximum rimage should be made and usuid strougly be paid. Where only hatel shade are provided those who use then are expected to putron ize the ter, and this accommodation should be provided without an obligation imposed to a noke or drink over the bur In places where these public stables and sheds have been provided they have paid well on the investment It is only accessory sometimes for farmers to enguest or demand such improvements when some enterprising business may will provide them and by so doing get new huntness in his line. Villages should be the social and business conters of the country cosp munifies, and every improvement they can inaugurate to make it easier for the farmer to come and transact bushness or attend observious, lectures, concerts or plays the more money they will spend, and the spending of money is the life of the village, for the more money judiciously expended the greater the inconfive to make it. On the other hard, ellinges may well consider these and ther suggestions and give all to efforts to extend to farms telephone communication see tric lights and where preclate between villages trolley accommodations. By enterprise and push on the part of the business interests of the village often a large increase in the volume of trade may be stimulated. The grange may do valuable service in these directions in making demands upon villages for improved facilities and in so doing greatly benefit their organization and farm life generally GEORGE T. POWELL, President Agricultural Experts' Asso-

Free Public Lecture Courses. George M Twitchell writes as follows in the Maine Farmer: "New Hampshire Patrons have inaugurated a movement farrenching in effect both upon the Order and the public gen- | Or phone erally Nearly 100 courses of free public lectures are now in operation under the management of local granges and the direction of the state lecturer, the sole object being to impress upon the public the work the Order is doing, its relation to rural ufe, and to urge the claims of the grange in the hope of arousing greater interest in rural life, education and agriculture. Speaking at a number of these, I have been surprised and impressed with the interest manifested. the attendance and the response of those not members of the Order. It seems as though here was a line of work possible for the Order which would react to its permanent advance-

For Twenty-Six You

Mrs. Lamaster, of Kentucky, Superial with Internal Catarrical and Finally Delivered by Fines and

No. W. W. LAMASTER. of SUPPERED to twenty of yours with Maddley and Abbest ven and being advised to give Perana a trial, I did so, and um thankful to say that sight bottles of Pernus amithres bottles of Munalit entirely cured me of that trouble, and I am as well unever "-Mas, W. W. Lamaster, M.S. McAine Aven, Louisville, Ky.

Catarrh Causes Kidney Disease. Katarris is a frequent some of kills ney discuss. The privile of the kidnerve, as well as the rates to been, is fined Sometimes the categor to as employed in Any remedy expalts of mitigative the catarris to a mich more rational is shown than to give pullatives that or reduce the put of sires of more

1. 1- claimed for Preums ilma is to an Internal systemic externic remody, and It happens to be forevert. "I was cared of a severe atrock of the

to any one "-Mrs. J. J. Erom, 553 Water it, San Antonio, Tours.

Environment of the bowels by taking Po-runs. I am glad to recommend Persons

NORTH DANVILLE. The North Danville Grange will hold a world dance at Weeks half, Wednesday evening. Madam Brock will furrish music and refreshments will be served.

All are invited. There will be no services at the Free Swptist church next Sunday, but on June 13, Rev. J. B. Higgins of Newport Contecwill preach again as a candidate.

Miss Edna Pierce, a ourse from Brightlook hospital, St. Johnstore, is spending scution at W. P. Russell's.

Hiram Davie is very low,

IN CASE OF FIRE you have nothing to warry about We're talking now to those who are fortusure enough to be COVERED BY INSURANCE by one of our Insurance policies. Our companies always pay and do it quickly. Your money is soon yours after adjustment. Either renewals or new business attended to.

CRAWFORD RANNEY. INSURANCE,

That's what you get when SHAW does the Job. Yout tenewriter for sale cheap. Can.

Carl Fischer

be seen at W. H. Jenks' Photographic

17 keys, 4 rings. Also Columbia Phonograph with 20 records at your own price of would exchange for anything I could use. Write Vermont.

Opposite Gochee's Wagon

